CHAPTER 2

An Act to reform the Law respecting Property Rights and Support Obligations between Married Persons and in other Family Relationships

Assented to March 16th, 1978

Preamble

WHEREAS, it is desirable to encourage and strengthen the role of the family in society;

AND WHEREAS for that purpose it is necessary to recognize the equal position of spouses as individuals within marriage and to recognize marriage as a form of partnership;

AND WHEREAS in support of such recognition it is necessary to provide in law for the orderly and equitable settlement of the affairs of the spouses upon the breakdown of the partnership; and to provide for other mutual obligations in family relationships, including the equitable sharing by parents of responsibility for their children:

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

Interpretation

1. In this Act,

(a) "child" means a child born within or outside marriage, subject to sections 83 and 85 of The Child Welfare Act (which relate to the effect of adoption), and includes a person whom the parent has demonstrated a settled intention to treat as a child of his or her family, but does not include a child placed in a foster home for consideration by a person having lawful custody; R.S.O. 1970, c. 64

(b) "cohabit" means to live together in a conjugal relationship, whether within or outside marriage;

(c) "court" means a provincial court (family division), the Unified Family Court, a county or district court or the Supreme Court;

(d) "domestic contract" means a domestic contract as defined in Part IV;

(e) "parent" means the father or mother of a child, and includes a person who has demonstrated a settled intention to treat a child as a child of his or her family, but does not include a person in whose home a child was placed as a foster child for consideration by a person having lawful custody;

(f) "spouse" means either of a man and woman who,

(i) are married to each other,

(ii) are married to each other by a marriage that is voidable and has not been voided by a judgment of nullity, or

(iii) have gone through a form of marriage with each other, in good faith, that is void and are cohabiting or have cohabited within the preceding year.

Combining of application

2.—(1) Where, in an application under any provision of this Act, it appears to the court that for the appropriate determination of the affairs of the spouses it is necessary or desirable to have other matters first or simultaneously determined, the court may direct that the application stand over until such other applications are brought or determined as the court considers appropriate.

All proceedings in one court

(2) Except as otherwise provided, where an application is made to a court under this Act, no person who is a party to the proceeding shall make an application under this Act to any other court, but the court may order that the proceedings be transferred to a court having other jurisdiction where, in the opinion of the court, the court having other jurisdiction is more appropriate to determine the matters in issue that should be determined at the same time.

Applications

(3) An application under this Act may be made in the manner prescribed by the rules of the court or in another proceeding.

Capacity of minors

(4) A minor who is a spouse has capacity to commence, conduct and defend a proceeding under this Act without the intervention of a next friend or guardian ad litem and give any consent required or authorized by this Act.

Extension of times

(5) The court may extend any time prescribed by this Act where the court is satisfied that,

(a) there are prima facie grounds for relief;

(b) relief is unavailable because of delay that has been incurred in good faith; and

(c) no substantial prejudice or hardship will result to any person affected by reason of the delay.

Closed hearings

(6) The court may exclude the public from a hearing, or any part thereof, where, in the opinion of the presiding judge, the desirability of protecting against the consequences of possible disclosure of intimate financial or personal matters outweighs the desirability of holding the hearing in public and the court may by order prohibit the publication of any matter connected with the application or given in evidence at the hearing.

Consent orders

(7) Upon the consent of the parties in an application under this Act, the court may make any order that the court is otherwise empowered to make by this Act, subject to the duty of the court to have regard to the best interests of children affected.

Incorporation of contract in order

(8) Any matter provided for in a domestic contract may be incorporated in an order made under this Act.

Act subject to contracts

(9) Where a domestic contract makes provision in respect of a matter that is provided for in this Act, the contract prevails except as otherwise provided in this Act.

Registration of orders

(10) Where an order made under this Act affects real property, the order does not affect the acquisition of an interest in the real property by a person in good faith without notice of the order, unless the order is registered in the proper land registry office.

PART I

(c) "property" means real or personal property or any interest therein.

Division of family assets

4.—(1) Subject to subsection 4, where a decree nisi of divorce is pronounced or a marriage is declared a nullity or where the spouses are separated and there is no reasonable prospect of the resumption of cohabitation, each spouse is entitled to have the family assets divided in equal shares notwithstanding the ownership of the assets by the spouses as determinable for other purposes and notwithstanding any order under section 7.

Application to court

(2) The court may, upon the application of a person who is the spouse of another, determine any matter respecting the division of family assets between them.

Effect of death of spouse

(3) The rights under subsection 1 are personal as between the spouses but any application commenced under subsection

2 before the death of a spouse may be continued by or against the estate of the deceased spouse.

Variation of division

(4) The court may make a division of family assets resulting in shares that are not equal where the court is of the opinion that a division of the family assets in equal shares would be inequitable, having regard to,

(a) any agreement other than a domestic contract;

(b) the duration of the period of cohabitation under the marriage;

(c) the duration of the period during which the spouses have lived separate and apart;

(d) the date when the property was acquired;

(e) the extent to which property was acquired by one spouse by inheritance or by gift; or

(f) any other circumstance relating to the acquisition, disposition, preservation, maintenance, improvement or use of property rendering it inequitable for the division of family assets to be in equal shares.

Purpose

(5) The purpose of this section is to recognize that child care, household management and financial provision are the joint responsibilities of the spouses and that inherent in the marital relationship there is joint contribution, whether financial or otherwise, by the spouses to the assumption of these responsibilities, entitling each spouse to an equal division of the family assets, subject to the equitable considerations set out in subsections 4 and 6.

Property other than family assets

(6) The court shall make a division of any property that is not a family asset where,

(a) a spouse has unreasonably impoverished the family assets; or

(b) the result of a division of the family assets would be inequitable in all the circumstances, having regard to,

(i) the considerations set out in clauses a to f of subsection 4, and

(ii) the effect of the assumption by one spouse of any of the responsibilities set out in subsection 5 on the ability of the other spouse to acquire, manage, maintain, operate or improve property that is not a family asset.

Statement of property

5.—(1) Where an application is made under section 4, each party shall file with the court and serve upon the other a statement verified by oath or statutory declaration disclosing particulars of all property of the party in the manner and form prescribed by the rules of the court.

Order for sealing statement

(2) Where, in the opinion of the court, the public disclosure of any information required to be contained in a statement under subsection 1 would be a hardship on the person giving the statement, the court may order that the statement and any cross-examination upon it before the hearing be treated as confidential and not form part of the public record.

Powers of court

6. In an application under section 4, the court may order,

(a) that the title to any specified property directed to a spouse in the division be transferred to or in trust for or vested in the spouse whether absolutely, for life or for a term of years;

(b) the partition or sale of any property;

(c) that payment be made out of the proceeds of sale to one or both spouses, and the amount thereof;

(d) that any property forming part of the share of either or both spouses be transferred to or in trust for or vested in a child to whom a spouse owes an obligation to provide support;

(e) that either or both spouses give security for the performance of any obligation imposed by the order, including a charge on property; and

(f) that either spouse pay to the other such sum as is set out in the order for the purpose of adjusting the division, and may make such other orders or directions as are ancillary thereto.

Determination of questions of title between married persons

7. Any person may apply to the court for the determination of any question between that person and his or her spouse or former spouse as to the ownership or right to possession of any particular property, except where an application or an order has been made respecting the property under section 4 or 6, and the court may,

(a) declare the ownership or right to possession;

(b) where the property has been disposed of, order payment in compensation for the interest of either party;

(c) order that the property be partitioned or sold for the purpose of realizing the interests therein; and

(d) order that either or both spouses give security for the performance of any obligation imposed by the order, including a charge on property, and may make such other orders or directions as are ancillary thereto.

Contribution to property

8. Where one spouse or former spouse has contributed work, money or money's worth in respect of the acquisition, management, maintenance, operation or improvement of property, other than family assets, in which the other has or had an interest, upon application, the court may by order,

(a) direct the payment of an amount in compensation therefor; or

(b) award a share of the interest of the other spouse or former spouse in the property appropriate to the contribution, and the court shall determine and assess the contribution without regard to the relationship of husband and wife or the fact that the acts constituting the contribution are those of a reasonable spouse of that sex in the circumstances. 1975, c. 41, s. 1 (3) (c), amended.

Interim orders for preservation

9. In or pending an application under section 4, 7 or 8, the court may make such interim order as it considers necessary for restraining the dissipation of the property and for the possession, delivering up, safekeeping and preservation of the property.

Realization of security

10. Where a court orders security for the performance of any obligation under this Part or charges a property therewith, the court may, upon application and notice to all persons having an interest in the property, direct its sale for the purpose of realizing the security or charge.

Presumptions

11.—(1) The rule of law applying a presumption of advancement in questions of the ownership of property as between husband and wife is abolished and in place thereof the rule of law applying a presumption of a resulting trust shall be applied in the same manner as if they were not married, except that,

(a) the fact that property is placed or taken in the name of spouses as joint tenants is prima facie proof that each spouse is intended to have on a severance of the joint tenancy a one-half beneficial interest in the property; and

(b) money on deposit in a chartered bank, savings office, credit union or trust company in the name of both spouses shall be deemed to be in the name of the spouses as joint tenants for the purposes of clause a. 1975, c. 41, s. 1 (3) (d), amended.

Application (2) Subsection 1 applies notwithstanding that the event giving rise to the presumption occurred before this section comes into force.

Application of Part 12. This Part applies notwithstanding that,

(a) the spouses entered into the marriage before this Part comes into force;

(b) the property in issue was acquired before this Part comes into force; or

(c) a proceeding to determine the rights as between spouses in respect of property has been commenced or adjudicated before this Part comes into force.

Conflict of laws 13.—(1) The division of family assets and the ownership as between spouses of movable property wherever situate are governed by the internal law of the place where both spouses had their last common habitual residence or, where there is no place where the spouses had a common habitual residence, by the law of Ontario.

Idem (2) The ownership of immovable property as between spouses is governed by the internal law of the place where the land is situated, but where the law of Ontario is applicable respecting the division of family assets, the value of the property may be taken into consideration for the purposes of section 4.

ROBB-DALES DRAIN

WINDSOR, Ontario, July 14, 1976.

To:- The Reeve and Municipal Council of the TOWNSHIP OF TILBURY WEST

Gentlemen:-

As instructed by you, we have made an examination, survey, etc., of the ROBB-DALES DRAIN, in your Township, and in the Township of Tilbury North, and now report thereon as follows:-

We commenced our survey of this drain at the Northerly end of the highway culvert crossing the Townline Road between the Townships of Mersea and Tilbury West. Thence we followed the course of the drain downstream to Station 214+50 at its outlet in the East Branch of Big Creek Drain.

We find that this drain is badly filled with run-ins and with a heavy growth of brush and small trees and is inadequate to properly retain and carry away the waters draining thereto from the lands and roads affected.

We would, therefore, recommend that this portion of the drain be cleaned out and improved in accordance with the accompanying profile and specifications.

We further find that each of the following owners is entitled to and should receive the following amounts as compensation for damages to lands and crops (if any):-

1.	Edward Allen, owner of Pt. Lot 15, Con 7 ----------	$ 90.00
2.	James Pearson, owner of Pt. S½ Lot 15, Con. 7 -------	$ 600.00
3.	Bedford Coulter, owner of NE¼ Lot 15, Con. 8 --------	$ 705.00
4.	Art & Ralph Brooker, owner of SE¼ Lot 15, Con. 8 ----	$ 672.00
